

Congratulations to our newest Mount alums!

We are pleased to welcome nearly 1,000 new graduate and undergraduate students from the Class of 2019 into the Alumnae Association. Both commencement ceremonies took place on May 6 at the Los Angeles Convention Center, featuring Abby Maxman, president and CEO of Oxfam America for the undergraduate ceremony, and Kay Buck, CEO and executive director of the Coalition to Abolish Slavery and Trafficking (CAST) for the graduate ceremony.

Congratulations to alumnae Genevieve Castellanos Denault '53 for receiving the Carondelet Medal, and to Brian Hanson '16 MFA, for receiving the Sisters Magdalen Coughlin Award. Both are well deserved! You can read more about the award winners and watch the commencement videos HERE.

We did it!

Thank you for supporting the University's first-ever Mount Day of Giving on April 17! Together, we surpassed our goal of 200 supporters and raised over $42,000 to support student scholarships, educational excellence, the Wellness Pavilion and so much more! If you missed our giving day and would still like to be listed in the next President's Report and Honor Roll of Donors, there is still time to make a contribution to the Mount before June 30. Visit www.msmu.edu/donate or contact Kate Fergusson at 213.477.2512 or kfergusson@msmu.edu for more information.
