THE REPORT ON THE STATUS OF
WOMEN AND GIRLS
IN CALIFORNIA™

Join us at the 2019 Report on March 28

Join Mount Alums for an exclusive opportunity to network and receive free headshots at The Report on the Status of Women and Girls in California™ on March 28 at the Skirball Cultural Center. This year's event will feature First Partner of California and filmmaker Jennifer Siebel Newsom in conversation with California State Senator Holly J. Mitchell about California's agenda for women and girls and how our communities can foster opportunities for all Americans. New this year, the Alumnae VIP Breakfast Lounge will offer snacks, swag and a free head shot for those that come between 8:30-9:30 A.M. Don't miss this exclusive opportunity to network with fellow alums. Click here for more information.

Becoming an #EquityandJustice advocate in your community
 On Feb. 20, join a conversation with Senator Holly J. Mitchell on how to effectively engage your community. Attendees will go home with an advocacy toolkit and tangible take aways that they can use immediately to be more effective social justice advocates. Los Angeles City Councilwomen Nury Martinez (6th District) and Monica Rodriguez (7th District) will be the guest speakers. Space is limited, register today.

Alum Spotlight
 Nursing alums Jocely Roque '13 and Kevin Namuag '15 returned to their alma mater recently to have their engagement photos taken on the campus that means so much to them. "We knew it would not only be the perfect setting but also a way to show our family and friends how blessed we were to be students at such a stunning campus." Read their story.

Wellness Walk
 The Mount community kicked off another year focused on wellness with a group trek along the new Doheny Campus walking path, a 0.8-mile loop designed as an easy walking trail that weaves among the campus' historic buildings.

Stories of Service: Discovering Your Passion and Purpose in the CSJ Tradition

In honor of our Sisters of St. Joseph, you're invited to join on March 17 to hear from Sister Judy Molosky, CSJ '70 and Michelle Melendres '05 to learn how the CSJ tradition can inspire your passion for service, both personally and professionally. Register here.
